New Song

Ken Colson

Tuesday, Day 17

Sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvelous things; his right hand and his holy arm have worked salvation for him. The Lord has made his salvation known and revealed his righteousness to the nations. Psalm 98:1-2 (NIV)

New songs.....are.....new!

And how do you feel about new songs? Truthfully? I prefer the old songs. They are familiar, comforting, soothing and they fit rather like an old shoe. There is nothing wrong with an old song, except when a new song is needed!

The time was near. God was ready to reveal His new song, The Messiah. The Psalmist unveiled this good news with word pictures, such as “His salvation” and “His righteousness.” And what better medium for an announcement than in a new song.

Jesus was prophesied to be our salvation in a covenant so different from the old Mosaic covenant that an existing song? Well...it wouldn't be appropriate. A new song was needed to express the salvation that God was sending. The Messiah is our new song! He continues to be marvelous and that is certainly worth a new song!

God expressed His salvation in Jesus for a world in need of a new song. Jesus, the Messiah, became my new song.

How do I feel about new songs? Now?

I love it!

New Song...God promised! Advent – God is coming to us.
